... the Southern Highlander Marching Band traveled. Departing from the school November 27 at 7:00 a.m., they started their eight hour journey to New York City.

Arriving in New York at approximately 3:15 p.m., the band toured the United Nations Building.

Tired from the long trip and interesting tour, they retired to the Taft Hotel for a few hours rest before rise 'n' shine at 3:00 a.m. for practice.

After the excitement and exhaustion from a job excellently done, the band once again returned to the hotel to start an evening of various tours.

On Friday morning the band visited Radio City Music Hall to see a film of the Little Prince followed by Elves and Bells, a fascinating Christmas show.

The group then split into smaller groups either going on shopping sprees or tours. That evening was spent by going to a movie or resting.

Saturday morning began an eight hour guided tour which included the Statue of Liberty, the Empire State Building, the Rockefeller Center, and a few cathedrals.

Returning to the hotel about 5:00 p.m., the band again split into smaller groups to have an evening of free time, which included shopping in a flea market, going to Howard Johnson's for ice cream, or seeing a movie.

Sunday morning the band was forced to leave an hour early because of the heavy snow warnings in Garrett County.

Arriving in Cumberland around 11:00 p.m., the band discovered they could go no further because of the snow. They were to stay in the Holiday Inn but soon found that their reservations had not been confirmed and other people also stranded had taken the rooms.

The Salvation Army soon came to the rescue taking the band to their facilities. The following morning coffee and donuts were served.

Waiting in suspense, the band was soon happy to discover that Allegeny County school buses would take them home.

The band finally returned to Garrett County about 2:00 p.m. Monday afternoon.

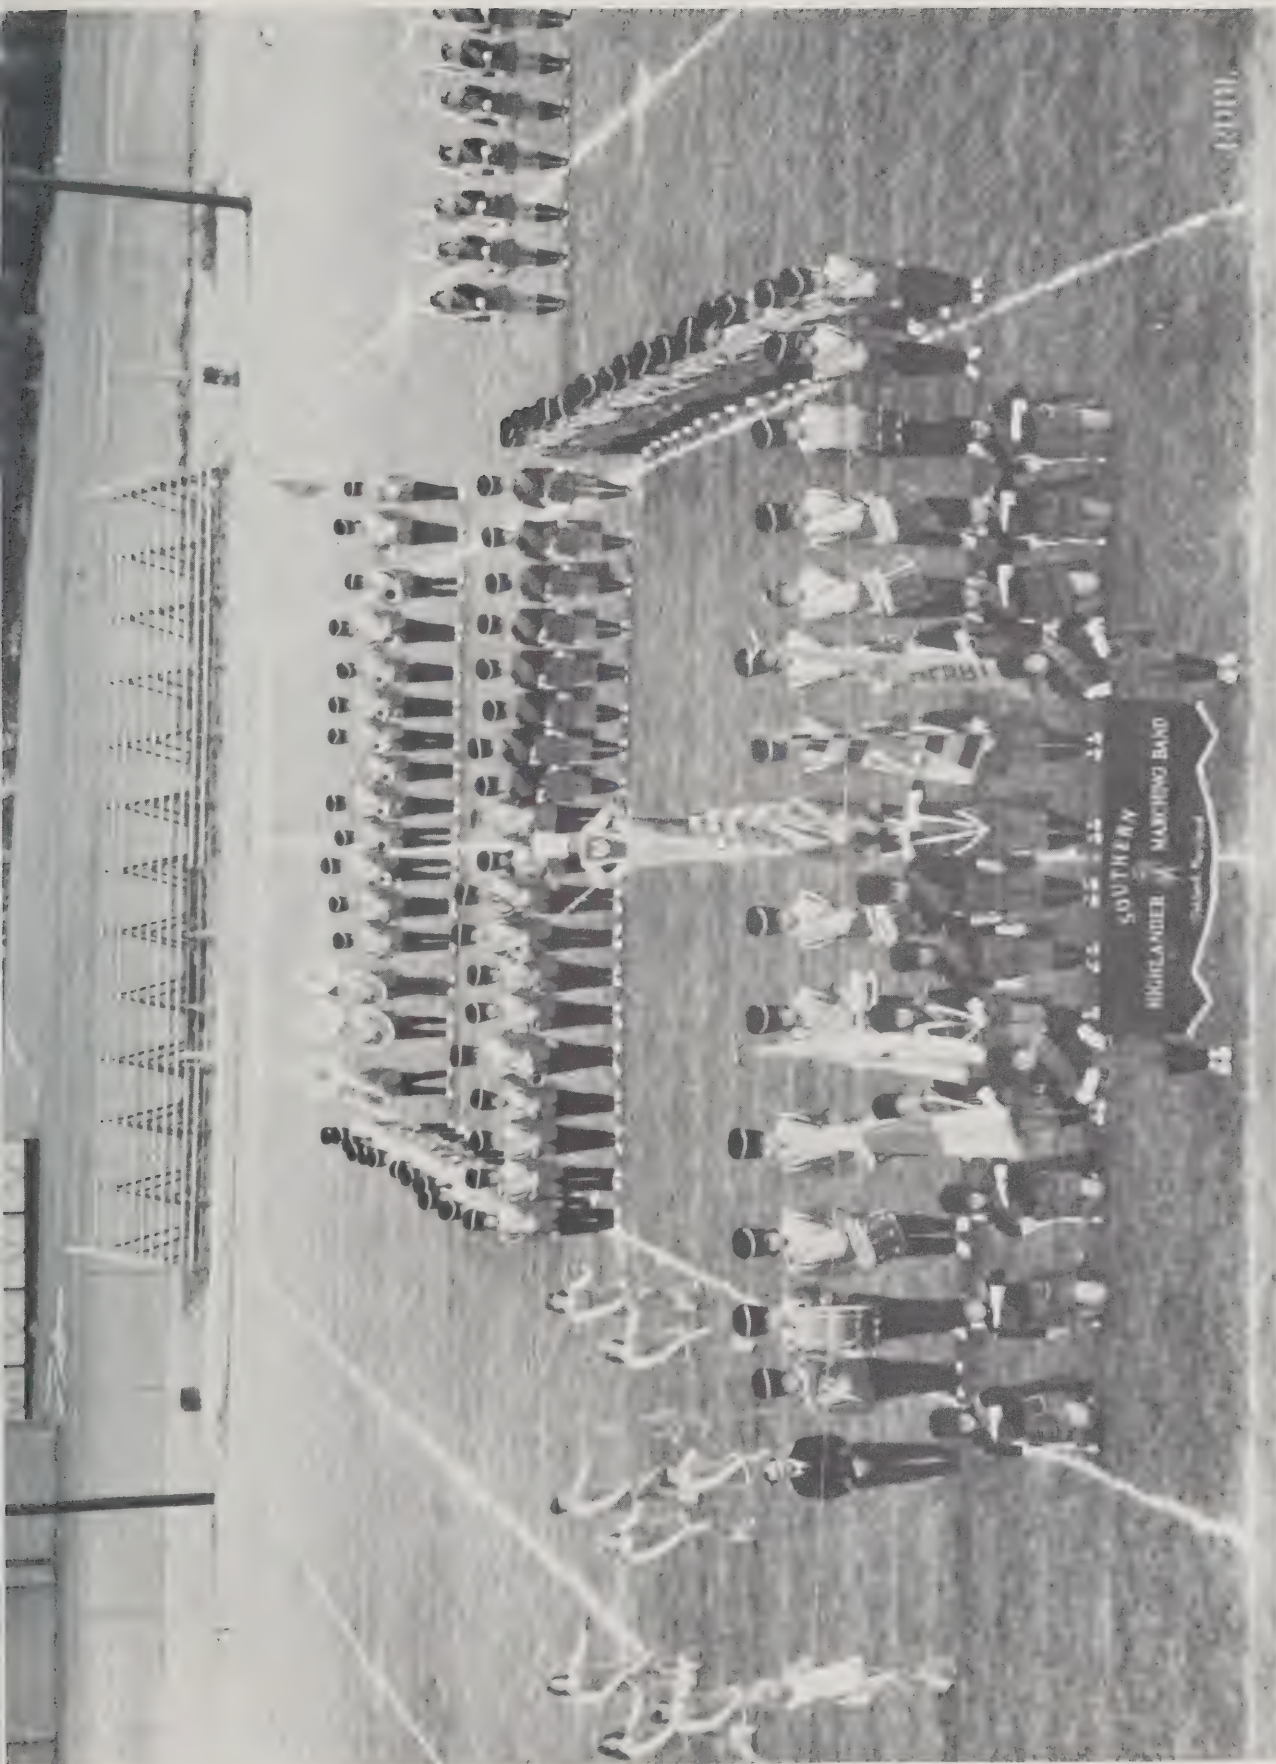

A trip completely fulfilled with excitement and wonder came to an end.

'74 HOMECOMING

from start to finish was full of spirit. Door decorations, crazy socks and hat day, a pep assembly, a bonfire, a great football game, and the homecoming dance were among the activities.

The Southern Rams showed one of the best performances this year. At halftime, tensions were high not only for football players but also for the spectators and the five girls of which one was to be selected queen.

The Southern Highlander Band performed to make it all that much better. The final cheers were given as the Rams beat the Huskies by the score of 22-14.

The Homecoming dance was held on Saturday, October 19. The Pork Brothers were hired at the last minute to play at the dance where the queen and king were crowned by Mr. James Miers, head football coach.

Homecoming '74 has left something for all to remember.

Doug Kight is looking for the one who keeps knocking on the darkroom door.

Under the leadership of editor Mark Domenick and managing editor Dianne Rook, the Acorn progressed to a third place rating in the Maryland Scholastic Press Association.

Seven issues of the paper were given to the student body along with a 48 page senior edition.

For the first time the staff concentrated on an extensive subscription campaign in early September. The Acorn Sweepstakes Giveaway was held for two weeks giving each student a chance to subscribe to the paper plus win one of the ten grand prizes. Prizes such as record albums and money were given to students whose names were selected from the Acorn's fire hydrant.

Issues of the Acorn ranged in size from 10, 8, 6, 4 pages.

Controversial as well as familiar school subjects were published. Horizontal page layout makeup was again emphasized adding to the attractiveness of the paper.

Arnold Victor Thomas was the key figure at the 1975 Jr.-Sr. Prom, although he was unable to attend.

The First Annual Arnold Victor Thomas awards program highlighted the dinner segment of the evening. Several awards were presented to those seniors that had shown outstanding abilities and talents during their six years at South-ern.

Among those were Dave Evans who received the Profane Language Award for his favorite use of the word CRAP. Rick Skeweris received the Skipper of the Year award for his outstanding record of being absent illegally the most times.

Marty O'Brien received the Barbara Streisand award for being the most faithful fan in the senior class. The Golden Tray award went to Nevin Maffett who ate 730 double lunches to win this honor.

The theme for the prom was Color My World. Dinner was served at the McHenry House at the Wisp at 7:00 and the dance followed at 9:00.

Entertainment was provided by Sound Affair. The theme song provided a romantic and unforgettable background.

The Saw Season

was that of the Southern Rams this year. They were under the direction of new head coach Mr. Jim Miers who took over the job after Bill Frost resigned. Mr. Wilbur Hinebaugh, his assistant, kept the Rams in shape to come back and win the tight games.

The summer practices were ones to remember, from throwing little brothers in the pond to the Junior-Senior game. This year the Juniors challenged the Seniors to a game to see who was the better of the two.

It was a good battle, but the seniors had more momentum to win the game 12 to 8.

The first few games showed the Rams in good shape until injuries slowed them down. Lack of experience, new ideas, injuries, and costly errors seemed to push the Rams from having a great team to a losing season.

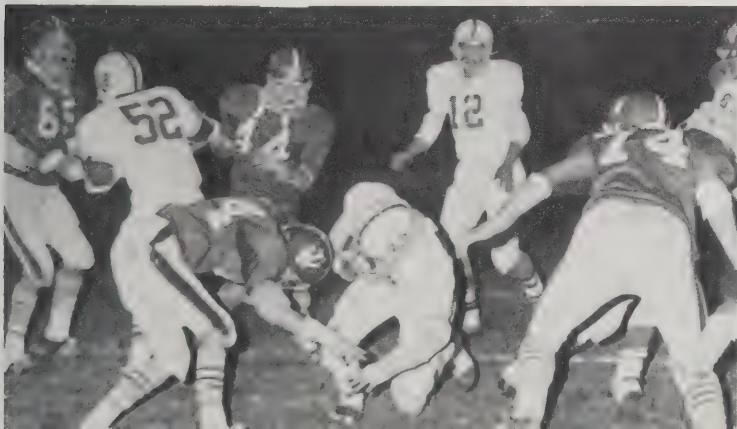

Tom Mattingly was the only player to receive Potomac Valley Conference honors. Ed Wolfe and Kevin Liller were named to the first team Tri-Valley Conference. Jim Liven-good, Eric Wotring, Ted Raynovich, and John Rodeheaver were awarded honorable mentions in the TVC.

Cagers Bucket 15-7 Season

Dave Shotwell strolls in for two against cross county rivals Northern.

The chorus to Jesus Christ Superstar, changed more appropriately to Southern Rams Superstars, exploded in the gym as the team appeared on the floor. Enthusiasm filled the hearts of everyone during one of the most exciting and memorable seasons ever.

The 1974-75 basketball season — we hated to see it end! We went bananas over this year's team.

They compiled a 15-7 record while playing the toughest schedule in Southern history, finished with the 7th best record of 27 area schools, and were rated by the Cumberland Times as the 4th best team in the area.

Although the team was bitterly disappointed by the blockade thrown them by Allegany on the road to College Park, they were consoled by such super-victories as Fort Hill, Bishop Walsh, and Bruce along with the Garrett County Championship.

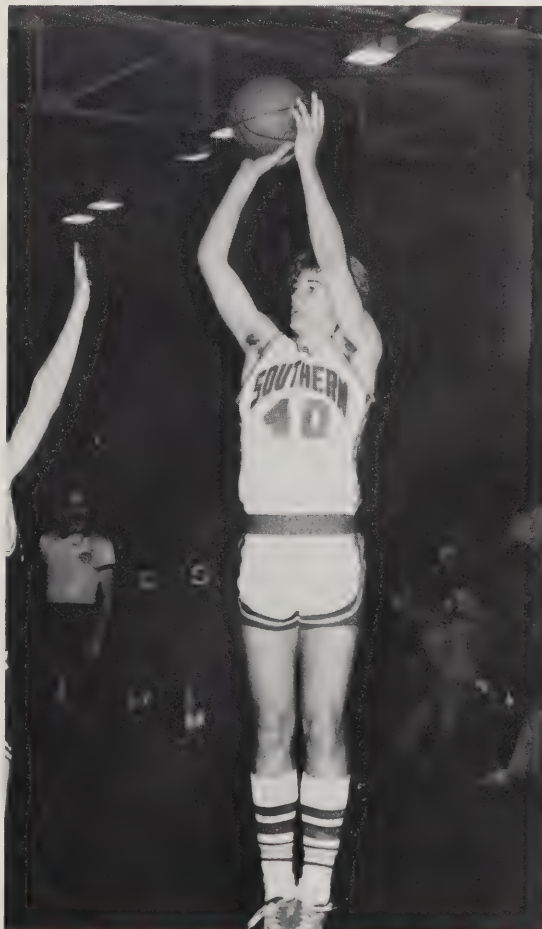

As a team, there were many moments they will never forget. Defeating Bruce, who proved to be the 4th best C school in the state, was one of the highlights for the team.

Moral and stamina were always high especially before the tougher games. Blowing Bishop Walsh off the floor proved this.

The night Fort Hill came to town the team was ready and waiting. The RAMs exploded in the 4th and sent the Sentinels home with a big loss.

Rams were DY*NO*MITE!!

Our Varsity Wrestlers

were unable to boast of even one dual meet victory this year.

However, in spite of team status, we had several outstanding wrestlers in terms of their individual performance.

Bob Wolf finished his freshman season with a respectable 7-4 record.

Ken Stinson, another super sophomore, concluded his season with a 6-4 mark and almost made it to Districts.

Our third super sophomore, Mike Friend, won both of his matches against Northern in the 155 pound weight class.

Merle Weeks, one of the winning wrestlers against Northern, ended up with a 5-3-3 record.

Steve Filemyr, team captain, placed third in the Bi-County Tournament and advanced to the District I Tournament held at Frederick.

Not to be forgotten are the following wrestlers who will probably be the standouts next year: Bill Herring, Jay Sowers, Tim Skipper, Terry Steyer, Perry Clark, Tim Friend, Denny Murray, John Rodeheaver, Jeff Sines, James Clark, and David Gallagher.

Managers this year were Ted Wolf, John Hayhurst, John Toston, and Dave Browning. These young men will be the varsity standouts of the future.

Even the managers should receive some of the credit for their help they have given this year.

They keep the equipment together and make sure the mats are clean before and after the matches and then put the mats away.

They give medical help to the injured wrestlers. Most of all they give the food that is eaten before the matches, such as oranges, honey, chocolate bars, and the salt pills.

The managers also wrestled in the JV matches. Dave Browning wrestled 105 and Ted Wolf in the 98 lb. class.

GO BANANAS

Robin Ravenscroft, captain

Dawn Tichnell

The Varsity Cheerleaders were super-thankful for the fans who so loyally helped them cheer the Rams on to a winning season.

Even the guys began to chant together when the cheerleaders adopted the chant Go Bananas — and that is just what the Southern fans did.

A few brought real bananas and waved them in the air while cardboard ones decorated the walls.

Just about everywhere you looked in the gym you saw bananas!

It seemed that team and coach also went bananas one night when instead of running through a covered hoop, they ran around it.

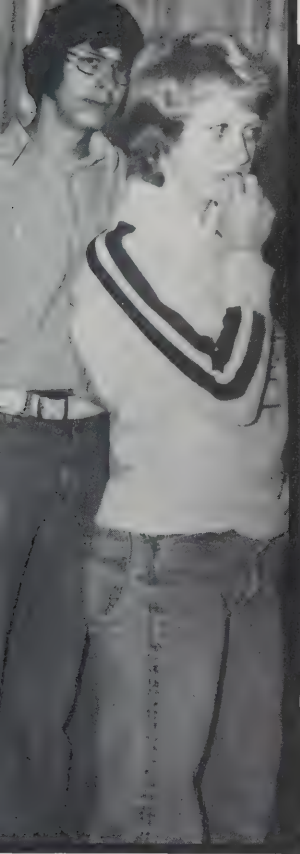

Oh well! That just goes to show what a great bunch of guys they were!!

J.V. Basketball

team did not have its best year ever, but during the tournament they showed willingness and determination to win, bringing Southern High a third place trophy.

Their season was a big letdown. The first two games were lost by one point. It seemed in the third period of each game they could not get any thing going.

At the beginning of the seasosn, their biggest player quit and the team was hurt. Another liability was the lack of experience due to the first year men.

Injuries also hurt the team. During practice, Mike Colaw fell and broke his wrist and was out almost the whole season. Without him, they were hurting for someone to bring the ball downcourt.

Through the year the team and bench showed a lot of enthusiasm which led the Rams to third place in the Hampshire tourney.

Fred Friffith, captain, was elected to be on the all tourney team. He also led the team in scoring, having a total of 203 points, averaging eleven per game.

The team thought Coach Gary Newcomb did an outstanding job this year.

Coaching Took a Different Turn

this year as both varsity and the Junior High Rams came under new leadership. Mr. David Bosley led the Junior Rams, directing them to a 2-5 season.

Taking the first game by a score of 16 to 6 over Petersburg, the Junior Rams then suffered numerous injuries the following games which probably turned them on the losing trail.

Thus, the lack of health along with a few inexperienced players played a key role, combining this with the close scores of 8 to 0 for Bruce and 6 to 2 against Northern.

The players expressed great satisfaction in the directing of their new coach as he tried to find the best players in one of the smallest Little Ram teams in the school's history.

This year's girls' basketball team started out with great hopes for the 1974-75 season. A number of girls went to summer basketball camp with their top competitor Northern.

At practice, Pam Terrant led the ankle exercises. It just so happened that she also led the string of ankle injuries. Pam was the first to fall into the hands of the enemy with a sprained ankle.

Donna Moore, not wanting to be showed up, broke hers. Todd Tichnell had to quit because of shin splints. Charlene Shaffer had to tape her ankles because of sprains.

So you see this was a good year for the legs of the team.

Also on the team was sure shot Ace with her forty feet bomb. Deb Smith missed a few weeks but all she needed was to warm up.

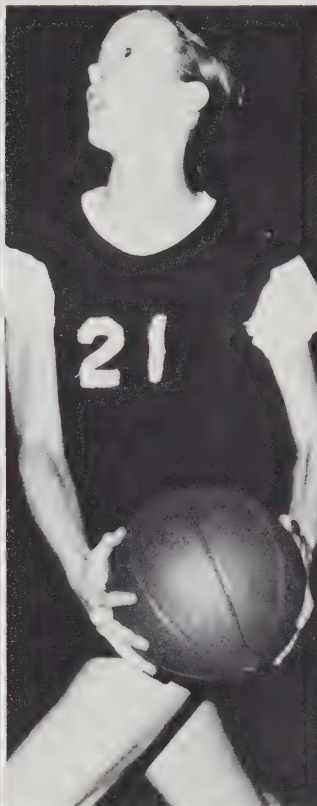

Mary Crumley and Pam Trickett were two of the new players on the team who showed up great.

Spirit and enthusiasm were high and all tenth grade players worked hard and showed much improvement. This gives much hope for a better season next year.

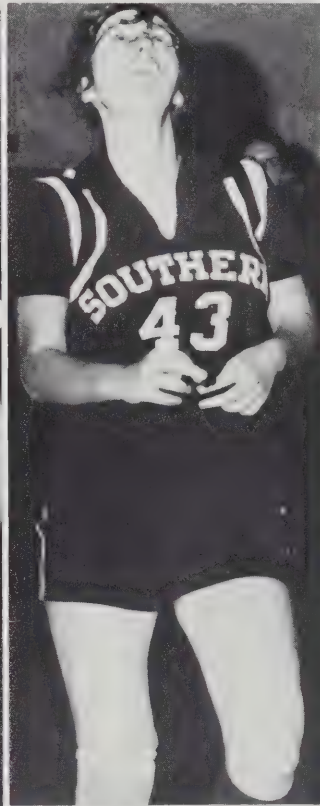

The team tried hard and made progress but this was not enough.

Sticky Fingers Todd Tichnell (33) brings the ball down the court.

Cathy Stem (21) goes in for two.

Donna Moore (43) keeps her eye on the ball.

Students Compete

The 1974-75 It's Academic Team competed twice this year, traveling to WBAL TV studios in Baltimore. They retired with a record of one win and one loss.

The team members were Steve Filemyr, captain, Mike Pendergast, and Nina Bishoff. The alternates included Brad Teets, Walter Lee, Brian Clatterbuck, and Tom Steger. The advisor was Mrs. Jean Grose.

In the first round on October 17, Southern played against Easton and Mt. Carmel High Schools. They were victorious and returned with $300 and a set of Merit Student Encyclopedias. In the next trip Southern came in third to Randallstown and Towson Catholic Schools.

Even with the loss, the team brought back $250 and a two volume set of books on Sir Walter Scott.

During their stay in Baltimore the first time, the team toured the McCormick spice factory.

The next trip they toured Washington, D.C. Places visited included the White House, Capitol, and Bureau of Printing and Engraving.

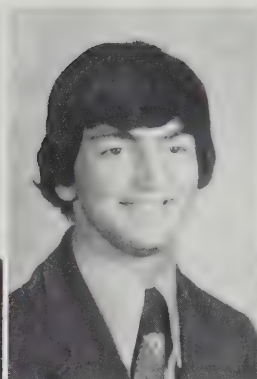

The trip was highlighted by meeting Congressmen Goodloe Byron and Harley Staggers.

SHS

A name and a picture that will be implanted in our minds for the rest of our lives. A symbol that will serve as a reminder of our adolescent years and our young and naive ideals. A name that will recall memories — good and bad.

The time has come for the Class of '75 to move on — to discover a strange and difficult world and leave the old and familiar behind for a new crop of explorers.

If they accomplish what they set out to do, like the ones before them, they too can be labeled what any person would like to be called — a success.

I am not afraid of tomorrow for I have seen yesterday and I love today.

Senior Colors — Purple and White

Senior Flower — Carnation
